Honorable William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington, DC 20505

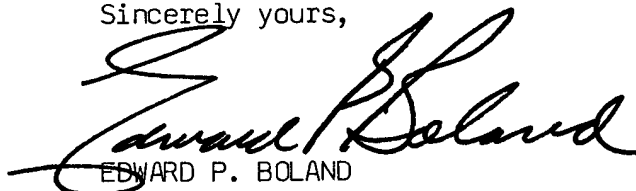

Dear Mr. Casey:

The press of other House business on July 12, 13, and 14, 1983, has forced the cancellation of the hearings of the Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence scheduled for those dates.

The hearings, which will deal with the proper role of congressional oversight of covert actions, have been rescheduled for September 20, 21, and 22, 1983. I again invite you to testify and apologize for any inconvenience the rescheduling may have caused you.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely yours,

EDWARD P. BOLAND
Chairman
